

Mining companies view their suppliers as an integral extension of their organisations, and strive for a transparent and efficient collaboration with best in class suppliers.

With more than 20 years' experience in this field, when it comes to helping you achieve operational efficiency, we're the name to trust.

Achilles Regic is a pre-qualification service that allows you to:

- Comply with regulations and legal requirements
- Align with industry standards for prequalification from providers
- Verify financial information and other critical areas, as well as basic and essential data of the companies

Achilles also guarantees:

- Validation of expert information, supported by a team with world wide experience
- The ability to transfer information to your company's internal systems

This is the right solution for you when:

- You need to verify the suppliers' compliance with safety and hygiene, competence and legality
- You require updated, unified information from your suppliers

We offer your suppliers:

- Greater visibility in the mining industry in Latin America
- Access to events and topical webinars
- Opening of opportunities with scope of new potential buyers
- Save time and effort in repetitive pre-qualification exercises
